

Wrongful Conviction Day

October 2, 2017 | 5:30 – 7:30pm

Beus Center for Law & Society | 5th Floor, Room 544

Nearly 2,100 people have been exonerated from prison since 1989 for crimes they did not commit, almost 2 people per week! National Wrongful Conviction Day aims to inform and educate the broader community on the causes and consequences of wrongful convictions.

Join us on October 2nd to honor the wrongfully convicted and to hear from various members of the criminal justice community on wrongful convictions, how they occur, and what we can do to help prevent them from happening.
